

The image is a vertical composition. On the left, there is a narrow column of horizontal bars in various colors (blue, green, orange, pink, grey, yellow, cyan, dark blue, light blue, orange, yellow). These bars are of varying lengths and are separated by thin white spaces. To the right of this column, a series of curved lines in the same color palette sweep from the left towards the right, creating a sense of movement and flow. The background is a solid, light grey color.
